1. All the piers in the Constanta Harbor are heavily guarded by the Militia and Frontier Guard troops (Graniceri).
2. A restricted zone has been established in Constanta (see attached sketch) which is reserved for the use of the Militia and the Soviets. No civilian is allowed to enter without a special pass and the area is surrounded with barbed wire. The hill overlooking the main gate of the harbor and the port is also restricted and a sentry is posted at the top.
3. The Rumanian training ship MIRCEA is still at her original birth and is badly in need of painting. She is believed to serve as a floating barrack for the Militia.
4. There is a small mothball fleet of Rumanian Naval vessels in the Danube River Navy Yards at Galati. This includes the destroyers MARASTII and MARASESTI and the submarine DELFINUL. The submarines MARSUIN and CASHALOT have been taken over by the Soviets*

Comment: This is the first evidence which indicates that the MARSUIN and CASHALOT are Rumanian submarines.
